Kickoff Event for Lunch at the Library in South County

Families Invited for Snacks, Special Entertainment at Gilroy Library

WHAT: Santa Clara County Library District is once again teaming up with Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties (SHFB) and the Silicon Valley YMCA to offer free, nutritious lunches to children and their caregivers at three South County locations this year – Morgan Hill and Gilroy Libraries, and San Martin/Gwinn Elementary School.

To celebrate, we are kicking off with a special event at Gilroy Library.

WHO:

Santa Clara County Library District
Silicon Valley YMCA and Special Guest
Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties

WHERE:

Gilroy Library
Street

350 W. Sixth

(408) 842-8207

Gilroy, CA 95020

WHEN:

Wednesday, June 5, 2019 from 3-4 pm

There will be snacks and a balloon artist to entertain families

WHY: Childhood hunger is all too common in the summertime, when school is out of session and kids do not have access to free or low-cost breakfast or lunch. During the 2018 Lunch in the Library program, 5,783 meals were served at our three locations, a 42% increase from the year before.

According to SHFB, kids who don't get enough to eat often suffer emotional and physical effects that can last into adulthood. SHFB also points out that low-income kids who have access to food assistance are healthier and perform better at school than their peers who don't.

Listed below is information about this summer's three free meal sites. Please note that the days and hours vary by location. Updates can be found at sccl.org/summer2019/.
